

LIQUICITY®

INTERNSHIP GRAPHIC DESIGN

Duration: February 1st 2019 – August 1st 2019 (to be discussed)

32 hours per week (to be discussed)

Location: The Liquicity office in Amsterdam

Liquicity is a rapidly growing record label and event organiser with a worldwide fan base. To support both the label and the events, we are looking for an ambitious graphic design intern. In this function you are responsible for developing the Liquicity graphic content, for promotional or communicational purposes. Besides creating the content, you are also able to contribute to the marketing and communication strategies. You will be closely involved in the major activities within the company and you will work directly alongside the rest of our small but dedicated team in Amsterdam.

Activities:

- Develop online marketing content
- Contribute to the Liquicity artwork and house style
- Design merchandise items
- Execute various multimedia tasks such as video processing
- Assist on various organisational tasks for both the events and label
- Assist on daily office tasks

Requirements:

- You are experienced enough with Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator and After Effects to realize graphical content independently
- You have affinity with electronic music and events
- You are available for +/- 32 hours per week between February 2019 – August 2019
- You master the English or Dutch language (speech and writing)
- You are communicative, proactive, flexible and you have a positive approach
- You are in the possession of a laptop, preferably a MacBook
- You need to be physically present at least three days a week in the office

Advantages:

- You are following a graphic design, communication or marketing study (or you have already finished one)
- You have knowledge and work experience in the field of graphic design and IT
- You are in the possession of a driving license

We offer you:

- A diverse set of tasks with plenty of room for your own input
- A fun and relaxed work environment with an informal vibe and flexible hours
- A chance to increase your own design abilities by working directly with an experienced graphic designer
- A chance to expand your network within the music industry
- Room for specific assignments from your educational program
- A monthly financial compensation of 200 Euros

Apply:

Do you recognize yourself in this profile and would you like to contribute to the exciting world of Liquicity? Send us your resume, portfolio and motivation office@liquicity.com. For additional information, contact our label manager Boudewijn Kustner, +31640346664. We look forward to hearing from you!

Liquicity is an official and recognized learning company for national and international studies